Pastor Pete has a vision for this body of believers to be fully equipped to share the Gospel with those who don't know the Lord or those who have fallen away and need encouragement to come back to a loving relationship with
Jesus Christ

He wants to hear your thoughts on ways to implement this and would like to know how you feel the Lord may be calling you to be a part of the Great Commission of Matthew 28:16-20

Romans 14:1-3 – (NIV) Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgement on disputable matters. One man's faith allows him to eat everything, but another man, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables. The man who eats everything must not look down on him who does not, and a man who does not eat everything must not condemn the man who does, for God has accepted him.

Bible Trivia or Spiritual Food for Thought:

I Peter 2:12 says: "Live such good lives among pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us."

Over the next month, try to think of ways you are living a good life among pagans (or non-Christians and those that are Christian in name only). What do people see in you that is Christ like? Is there anything we need to do differently? Is there anything our church needs to do differently? Feel free to share your ideas in Sunday bible study!

Last month's question:

In the book of Romans, Paul writes to the church in Rome. In chapter 12, he talks about how to treat your enemy. What does he say about how to treat our enemies?

- Ignore them, and they will go away
- Heap coals on their head so they die
- Feed them if they are hungry and give them water if they are thirsty
- Turn them in to the authorities and let them deal with your enemy

Answer: C. Feed them if they are hungry and give them water if they are thirsty
